DEDICATION

We, the Annual Staff of "1970," respectfully dedicate our annual to Mr. L. R. Nelson. Patience and understanding are only part of his contributions to the success of our school.

He has always been ready to extend help and advice during our most difficult and formulative years. For his devotion and guidance to our school and to its students, we will always be grateful.

With Love, Honor, and Respect,

THE 1970 STUDENT BODY

ADMINISTRATION

MR. CURTIS E. BURRELL
Assistant Principal

MR. MORRIS D. WILLIAMS
Elementary Principal

The greatest desire that any school principal could possibly have is that each school year will be better than before. I believe that such a year we had.

My sincere thanks to the faculty and students for their untiring efforts to participate, share, and work in the 1969-70 school program.

To maintain and secure the future of the Beta Club, Mary Lowry has continued to uphold the standards set by this nationally recognized service organization whose motto is "Let Us Lead by Serving Others." This alone requires stamina in upholding the aspirations and goals of a recognized leader, as well as participation in clubs and all activities of the school be it the academic or extra-curricular.

This Hall of Fame winner of 1970 has been active in all school affairs for four years, represented her school and county as Jackson County's Junior Miss. All of these put together places Mary in the 1970 Hall of Fame.

Sincerity, integrity, dedication and honesty are seldom combined characteristics found in one person; however, Mike TerKeurst possesses these with which he is confronted. Whether in band, the classroom, the hall, or the campus this outstanding personality lends himself to the spirit of the ideal young citizen among students and faculty.

Having a genuine interest in others before himself, assisting teachers, sharing his ideas with others, believing in himself and giving his personality to the school society won Mike this 1970 Hall of Fame Award.

Playing the game and playing it well whether on the athletic field or in the classroom has brought honors to this outstanding student. For this Terrance Wells has been named to the 1970 Hall of Fame.

Displaying physical ability for four years in athletic contests with a spirit of teamwork, demonstrating his ability in the classroom, winning athletic honors for his school, responding to situations with an open mind, realizing that every man must strive to be an integral force in society have contributed to his success as athlete, scholar, and citizen.

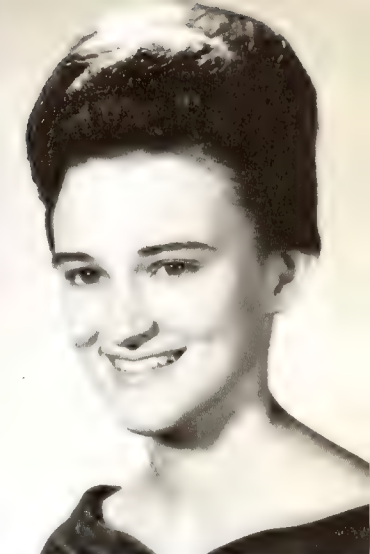

Mary Neville has won the admiration of students and faculty alike for her ability to govern the affairs of the Student Body. Giving her time and ability to the Student Council throughout the high school years, she has earned a position of prominence and responsibility which only leaders accomplish.

Constantly improving relationships among students and faculty, alerting herself to the needs of others, a constant smile, a cheerful attitude, and a winsome personality have won this outstanding student the honor of being a member of the 1970 Hall of Fame.

Versatility defines this 1970 Hall of Fame winner. Cynthia Tanner has been active in every facet of school life from the time she entered East Central High School.

Besides maintaining superior marks in her academic program, she has been a promoter of school spirit, cheerleader, Beta Club member, and was Homecoming queen in 1969-70. All of this she has earned by hard work, loyalty, dedication, and exemplification of a vivacious spirit.

With her smile and personality, Cynthia has endeared herself to everyone at East Central High School, and for this the award of Hall of Fame is bestowed upon her.

Representing every dynamic accomplishment known to man has been someone behind the scenes whose quiescent manner produces a finished product of first rate quality. Connie Strickler received this award in 1970 for her untiring efforts to present the HORNET to you.

Countless hours - many of them past the normal time of repose for the average student - has she spent in thinking, planning, preparing, and expending mental and physical energy for this book to come alive for posterity.

Above all she has maintained an active role in curricular and co-curricular movements. Successfully doing this has meant careful allotment of time for studies, which have also brought creditable recognition for this Hall of Fame winner.

ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT COUNCIL

The effective student council is actively and constantly engaged in learning and doing. It is an integral part of the total school program and as such contributes to the educational development of every student in the school. Under the guidance of an interested adviser and the cooperation of an informed student body, faculty, and administration, it is aware of the reasons for its existence and strives to attain its goals. To accomplish these goals, it is organized and operated on sound democratic principles with a good workable constitution, which has been adopted by the entire student body as its documentary guide. The successful student council knows the limits of its powers and authority and that it does not govern the school but participates in this government in many ways.
